

RULES AND REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO SERVICES AT THE MARCHÉ DU FILM

1 • PRELIMINARY

The Société de Gestion d'Opérations commerciales pour le Festival International du Film (SOGOFIF) is responsible for the organization of the Marché du Film, hereafter the "Marché du Film" or "Marché", which takes place as part of the Festival de Cannes (the "Festival"). SOGOFIF is a subsidy of the Association Française du Festival International du Film (AFFIF). The aim of the Marché du Film is to promote networking opportunities between professionals within the film industry and to facilitate the international business of film rights, whether the films are completed or not. These films are defined as feature films destined for a first release in theatres. The Marché du Film offers various services strictly reserved to the registered participants, hereafter "Participants" or the "Company." Access of Participants to these services is conditional upon the total acceptance of the Rules and Regulations for Registration at the Marché du Film, together with the Rules and Regulations laid out hereafter, as well as those related to each specific service.

It is expressly reminded that the Marché du Film cannot be held accountable regarding any commercial or press-related results expected by the Company. This non-accountability also applies to all the programs and services provided by the Marché du Film.

2 • INVOICES AND VAT

All invoices corresponding to services bought are at the Participant's disposal on the Internet. They are available on the website www.moncompte.marchedufilm.com and can be printed as "pdf" secure files via access codes given to each Participant. Companies acknowledge and accept that these files constitute the only original invoices for which no printed version will be given.

Following European regulation policies, certain services provided by the Marché du Film to companies based outside of France may be eligible for a reverse charge of the VAT. In this case, the VAT will not be added to the invoices of those clients. This procedure applies only to the services associated with booths, screenings, additional services, additional booth insurance and online services, with the exception of entry fees (accreditations, badges, parking passes) and when these services are provided to companies taxed in their own country, including but not limited to:

- companies based in one of the 27 countries of the European Union must provide their EU VAT number
- companies based outside the European Union must provide a document stating that they are taxable in their own country
- companies who are not taxable or who cannot provide the above mentioned information will be invoiced with French VAT at the current rate and unauthorized to request a reimbursement from the French fiscal services.

3 • CONDITIONS OF PAYMENT OF SERVICES

The service fee payment must be made according to the payment conditions marked on the corresponding contract and invoice. In case the invoice indicates an obligation of payment upon receipt of said invoice, the payment should be made within 15 (fifteen) days. Payment for services must be made online by credit card (American Express, Visa, or MasterCard only); or by Swift transfer (the express agreement of the Marché is required). Payments made in-person in Cannes must also be made by credit card. Cash payments are no longer accepted.

According to Articles L441-6 and D441-5 of Commercial Law, any delay in payment will give rise to a penalty fee calculated from the day following the payment deadline stated on the invoice, with a rate of three times the legal rate of interest being applied. This rate is the interest rate applied by the European Central Bank in its recent refinancing operation (which was increased by 10%). This penalty fee must be paid without any reminder being necessary. In addition, any delay in payment will also entail the payment of a fixed compensation fee to the Marché du Film to cover recovery costs, calculated at 40 Euros (see Article D441-5 of Commercial Law). In the case where recovery costs are higher than the fixed compensation fee, the Marché reserves the right to request supplementary compensation. Any delay in payment also gives rise to the application of the penal clause defined hereafter.

In the case of non-payment, on the day following the payment deadline stated on the invoice, the Marché du Film may decide to cancel the corresponding contract, without releasing the Company from the obligation of full payment of the contract, as well as the interest referred above and the penalty listed below. The cancellation of a contract also entails the barring of the Participants registered by the Company from the Marché du Film zone and the immediate return of his/her badge.

In addition, registration of the Company and its Participants at the Marché du Film and Festival will be cancelled for the year in question and all ensuing years until payment in full is received. These provisions also apply when the Company and/or the Participants owe money, in similar conditions, to a hotel in partnership with the Marché or an official supplier of the Marché.

It is hereby stated that in any case where administrations or banks of the country of the Company's country that would apply a tax deducted at the source or any other tax, such tax will be at the exclusive charge of the Company. The Company will ensure that the Marché du Film receives payment in full (all tax included), corresponding to the amount due. In the case of non-payment of invoices at the due date despite an official request for payment, the offender will be liable to a penalty of 20% of the total amounts due, in addition to the interest rate mentioned above.

4 • CONDITIONS SPECIFIC TO EACH SERVICE

4.1 Screenings in the Marché Screening Rooms

4.1.1 Screening Reservations

Only sales companies exhibiting at the Marché du Film can make reservations for screenings of feature films. Once the Company has sent its request for screenings, the Marché du Film will then suggest rooms, dates and times according to availability, through an order form. Films produced before January 2025 and those that have been screened at a Market prior to December 2025 will not be accepted.

Screening requests will be processed in the order in which they are received. Time slots will be confirmed upon the receipt of the order form duly signed by the Company and sent in conjunction with the corresponding payment. In the case where a payment is not received by the Marché du Film within 15 (fifteen) days of receiving the order form, the time slots for screenings cannot be guaranteed. The titles of the films to be screened must be communicated to the Screenings Department no later than 27 April 2026. Screening reservations will be cancelled for all titles submitted after this date.

The Marché du Film reserves the right to request a synopsis or the complete script of the film in advance and to refuse screening requests that may promote violence, racism, sexism, pornography, disturb public order, or offend religious beliefs, as well as any related posters and other promotional materials. Screenings which take place at the Marché are under the sole responsibility of the Participant, who guarantees to have taken all necessary steps for any legal and technical issues. The Participant agrees to fully respect all copyright regulations and to screen only those films for which he/she has all the necessary authorization from the entitled beneficiaries.

4.1.2 Screening Rates

Screening rates are for feature films of up to 110-minutes maximum. Films with a running time between 110 and 140 minutes will be invoiced at a pro-rated increase of 25%. For films that are longer than 140 minutes, Participants are required to reserve and pay for two consecutive screening slots.

In the case where a company would like to set up a test before the screening, the Marché du Film will invoice it at a fixed rate of 480€ (without VAT) with the test lasting no longer than 20 minutes. If the Company chooses to have a test longer than 30 minutes, it will be invoiced as a full screening slot.

For short films, please contact the SFC I Rendez-vous Industry at sfcinfo@festival-cannes.fr.

4.1.3 Access to Screenings

Entrance checks at the Marché du Film screening rooms are carried out by Marché du Film personnel who are responsible for applying both priority access and security rules established by the Marché du Film. All Companies with reserved screenings are required to respect these rules and are, in no case whatsoever, allowed to intervene with spectators at the entrance of the rooms.

Access to the Marché du Film screening rooms is reserved for the following, in order of priority:

1. Participants with a Marché du Film priority badge (with a mauve square);
2. Participants with another type of Marché du Film badge;
3. Participants with a ticket issued by the Screenings Department accompanied by a Festival Badge or a Daily Badge. Daily Badges can be purchased at the Gare Maritime.

Entry into the Palais des Festivals and the Lérins is only possible with a badge; a ticket alone does not allow access to the screening rooms in these areas; both a badge AND a ticket is necessary to gain entry into a screening room.

Journalists registered with the Festival de Cannes do not have access to the Marché du Film screening rooms unless the reserving Company requests so in advance.

The screening rooms of the Marché du Film are equipped with bar code scanners which allow us to provide a list of the screening room attendees. However, the Marché du Film cannot be held responsible in the case where a list is unavailable or incomplete; sales companies cannot request compensation in the event of this occurring.

4.1.4 Delivery of Films

All DCPs, in digital format, must arrive at the Marché du Film in Cannes no later than Wednesday, 6 May 2026.

Please note the screening fee includes the delivery fee of your film. The DKDMs and KDMs must be addressed to canneskdm@festival-cannes.fr no later than Wednesday, 6 May 2026. A penalty of 250€ will be charged to the Company if:

- the DCP, the DKDM or KDM is not received by 6 May 2026,
- the DKDM or KDM is not functional from Wednesday, 6 May to Saturday 23 May (including).

4.1.5. Technical Specifications

In case the delivered material does not fall within the exact specifications of the criteria listed in the Screening Schedule (available at www.marchedufilm.com) or it has been delivered after the aforementioned deadline, no refund can be claimed from the Marché du Film for such problems, including the cancellation of the screening. Furthermore, the Marché reserves the right to cancel any screening which might prevent the following screening from starting on time. However, the cancelled screening will still be due in full.

4.1.6 Management & Deletion of DCPs at the Marché du Film

As per special customs authorization, foreign films from non-European Union countries may enter France under temporary clearance. French customs may impose penalties on the representative if a print violates customs regulations. Prints from European Union countries are not subjected to any customs formalities. When prints are not under customs supervision, they will remain with the Marché du Film in its storage facility (until they are to be shipped back).

As part of the dematerialization process, all DCPs sent for screening via ASPERA (a DCP transfer service provided by Viapass) are completely deleted from Cannes servers as soon as the Marché du Film concludes. Consequently, no data — DCP, KDM, or DKDM — is retained.

4.1.7 Screening Announcements

The Participant allows the Marché du Film to publish and communicate in its printed and online guides, any information and documents provided directly or indirectly through the Company or Participant's website, including synopses, trailers and images from films and/or of company employees and logos, unless requested otherwise in writing by the Company at least one month prior to the Festival's opening date. The Participant confirms he/she is authorized to use these elements and guarantees that the Marché du Film will not be held responsible by any third party concerning the same.

All information given will be used in accordance with the Loi Informatique et Libertés dated 6 January 1978. Access to and correction of this information is possible.

The Marché du Film reserves the right to refuse listing: any film submitted by two different companies; any film produced before 2025; or any film which is liable to disturb public order, as well as those which are offensive to religion, pornographic or which incite violence.

4.1.8 Terms of Cancellation for Screenings

Any screening cancelled by the Company by 17 April 2026, will be reimbursed. Starting 18 April 2026, screenings will only be partially reimbursed. In that case, the administrative fees will be canceled for each canceled screening (150 Euros). In case of multiple cancellations, The Marché du Film will have the right to distribute equally the cancelled screenings slots. Any cancellation made on or after Monday 27 April 2026 will be due in full.

In any case where a refund is due, the Marché du Film will strive to ensure that the reimbursements for all paid installments received are made no later than 30 September 2026.

4.1.9. Limitation of Liability Clause

In the case where the Marché du Film is responsible for the cancellation of or error in a screening, this may give rise to the programming of a new screening time slot, with similar conditions to those originally agreed upon, and within the limits of availability without any other compensation.

However, where the correct execution of the screening is impeded by the contractor or another third party or in the event of a natural disaster, no compensation may be claimed.

4.2 Management of Advertising Materials & Display Conditions

4.2.1 Responsibility & Content Provided by the Advertiser

The Advertiser is fully responsible for the submitted content (texts, trademarks, logos) and guarantees that they have the necessary rights for its distribution. The Marché du Film reserves the right to unilaterally refuse any insertion or display of content that violates applicable laws and regulations, that may offend public morals, or that threatens public order. No refund will be granted in such cases.

4.2.2 Compliance & Delivery Deadlines

The provided materials must comply with the technical specifications outlined by the Marché du Film. In case of non-compliance, any additional costs incurred will be the responsibility of the Advertiser. If the required materials are not submitted within the specified deadlines, the Marché du Film cannot guarantee the implementation of the advertising campaign. No refund or compensation will be granted in such cases.

4.2.3 Cancellation & Exceptional/Unforeseen Circumstances

No cancellations will be accepted, except for displays in Cannes or printed advertisements in the event of a postponement or cancellation of the event. In the case of unforeseen circumstances (fire, flood, destruction of the venue, terrorist attack, etc.), the Marché du Film and the organizing company cannot be held responsible for the non-fulfillment of the contract. They also reserve the right to cancel or suspend the execution of the advertising campaign.

Any costs incurred up to the notification of cancellation or postponement will be retained by the Marché du Film. In the event of non-delivery of materials, the Advertiser will be required to pay the full contract amount as compensation.

4.3 Office & Video Equipment

4.3.1 Renter/Participant's Obligations

For the duration of the rental period, the Renter/Participant becomes "keeper" of the rented equipment and agrees to use it for its intended purposes and to protect/keep/return the equipment in the same condition in which it was given. In addition, the Renter/Participant may not:

- move the rented equipment from where the technical services installed it
- give, loan or sublet it to any third party

The renter states that he/she has taken note of the fact that the rented equipment is designed to be placed in covered premises, protected from water infiltration and situated on firm ground.

Should the Renter/Participant fail to present justified complaints in writing, concerning the condition and quantities of the rented equipment within a period of 24-hours from the time the rented equipment has been placed in his/her care, it will be considered that he/she received it in good condition, and that he/she is responsible for returning it in the same condition at the end of the rental period.

The Renter/Participant alone is accountable to the Marché du Film for any possible deterioration, loss or theft. The Renter/Participant also agrees to make all necessary arrangements to be insured, if he/she deems it necessary, against all risks including damage, loss, theft and any other disaster or accident. Concerning the rental of furniture, the Renter/ Participant can use the compulsory insurance referred to in Article 4.3.5.

The equipment rented by the Marché du Film remains its sole property.

4.3.2 Replacement

The Marché du Film expressly reserves the right to supply, in place of the equipment ordered, any equivalent equipment capable of satisfying the same usage requirements. The customer recognizes that the essential condition of his/her contract resides in the usage of the equipment and not in its intrinsic nature. Should the customer fail to give written refusal within 24 hours of the replaced equipment after we have given him/her written notice, he/she must accept it and the resulting obligations.

4.3.3 Sanctions

The Marché du Film expressly reserves the right to recover rented equipment without prior notice or compensation in the event of a breach in the present Rules and Regulations without the Renter/Participant being able to claim damages or engage in judicial proceedings.

Non-participation does not release the Participant from the obligation to pay in full when reserving/renting equipment.

4.3.4 Terms of Cancellation

Orders cannot be canceled under any circumstances except for when the cancellation is directly due to the postponement or the cancellation of the Event. In the case where a Company cancels its attendance in Cannes, all corresponding invoices for the equipment will be invoiced in full. In the case that the event cannot take place due to completely unforeseeable and exceptional circumstances (fire, flood, storm, destruction of the place where the event is taking place, terrorist attack, etc.), neither the Company nor the Marché du Film would be responsible for the non-supply of the ordered material. In this case, both the Company and the Marché du Film have the right to either cancel the received order or to suspend and postpone its execution. In both cases, the costs incurred by the Marché on the date of notification of the cancellation or suspension, namely the costs already incurred for the organization of the technical and/or logistical services will be retained by the Marché du Film.

Should the Company refuse the ordered equipment upon its delivery, all corresponding invoices will be due in full.

4.3.5 Insurance – Deposits

When renting furniture, renters are required to pay for damage insurance for the duration of the rental. It will cover the renter against risks of theft, loss or damage from the first official opening day to its last day. The guarantee for risk or theft is contingent upon the renter lodging a complaint with the proper authorities and sending a copy to the Marché du Film. The amount of this insurance must be paid at the same time as the rental.

4.4. Specific Services, Partnerships & Online Services

4.4.1. Obligations

The above listed Rules and Regulations cover other services such as the organization of sponsored programs, showcases, spotlights, cocktails, workshops, speed-meetings, presentations and any other services put in place by the Marché for the benefit of the Participants or Companies registered at the Marché du Film. Participant's access to these services is granted only if they are in full compliance of the Rules and Regulations of the Registration of the Marché du Film as detailed in the conditions listed above in this document.

For any provided service that includes an online streaming, the Company declares to be authorized to use the presented materials and authorizes the Marché du Film to diffuse the same on the Marché du Film online platforms, social media official accounts and other video platforms (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube, TikTok, etc.). In case of any restrictions on the online diffusion of the related content, the Company must inform the Marché du Film before the event date and study the necessary adjustments to implement.

4.4.2. Cancellation Policy

Orders cannot be canceled under any circumstances except for when the cancellation is directly due to the postponement or the cancellation of the Event.

In case of full or partial impossibility of holding any onsite and/or online services (or partnerships) due to the absence of the Company (cancellation of attendance in Cannes for the Company, the Speaker or the Invitee; cancellation or late delivery of required presentation elements including video, image or other format), the payment amount confirmed by contract will be due in full.

Online services, regardless of the onsite Marché du Film occurring or not, will not, under any circumstance, be subject to cancellation and/or reimbursement.
